Town Topics.

OLD ABE EAGLE has a large Washington hand press for sale cheap.

Mrs. J. O. Parker will soon begin the erection of a residence on the south side.

Bring us your cash orders for goods.

We will give you prices that will make you wonder how we do it.

TALIAFERRO BROS.

Mr. Morris R. Locke came in from

El Paso on Thursday and will remain here for several days.

If you are needing a set of harness or a saddle, let Taliaferro Bros. figure with you. They carry such goods in stock.

Slickers, rubber coats and rubbers at

Ziegler Bros.

Miss Lorena Sager received her new piano yesterday.

Taliaferro Bros. keep that celebrated brand of White House coffee. It costs a little more than other brands, but—

Road Supervisor C. D. Mayer is improving White Oaks avenue, which is now getting in better condition than ever before.

The elegant new residence of Mr. B.

F. Gunn is nearing completion and, when finished, will be one of the finest, largest and best homes in the city.

Boys' suits and boys' furnishing goods at greatly reduced prices.

ZIEGLER BROS.

Another girl baby was placed in the arms of the wife of President Cleveland on the 8th inst.

Do not miss the chance to buy a pair of those lovely tan slippers Ziegler Bros.

are advertising on another page.

Straw hats at less than cost.

ZIEGLER BROS.

The refreshing rain storms of Monday and Tuesday nights were much needed here, and being supplemented by another soaker last night, will make vegetation look green and give it new life.

Capt. Portman left for the East on Monday. He expects to locate in Washington, where his wife will engage in the practice of her profession, especially devoting her attention to treatment of the eye.

MARRIED.

On Sunday afternoon, 7th inst., Rev.

S. V. Dilley joined in marriage Mr. Jack

Lacey and Miss Alice Bartlett, residents of the Park. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, in White Oaks.

Mr. J. E. F. Smith, a lightning printer, arrived in White Oaks Sunday from Roswell and is occupying a case in the EAGLE office. If Mr. S. concludes to remain here, we shall be compelled to enlarge the paper in order to keep him at work. He sets type like a house afire.

We received this week a full stock of wagon sheets and tarpaulins, just the thing to go camping out with; also tents.

ZIEGLER BROS.

Jo Capuana sued Frank Cassi for $10 and the case was heard Saturday before Justice Blanchard. The defendant paid a set off, and procured judgment against the plaintiff for $25. There is now commotion in the Latin quarter, but it is not always the best policy to jump on a man just because you find him down.

The families of Mr. H. B. Ferguson and Dr. Wroth, of Albuquerque, are spending the summer months on the head waters of the Pecos, among the

THE FOURTH.

White Oaks did not specially observe the national anniversary in a formal celebration, but our people, many of them, were participants in the exercises which took place in other localities.

The cornet band furnished the music for the celebration at Richardson (Block Ranch), while our base ball club showed their superior skill, at the same place, by defeating the Fort Stanton nine on the diamond. The future railway station and prospective city of Richardson did herself proud by entertaining her guests with a grand ball at the immense new warehouse just now being completed. There was, during the day a ropeing tournament, in which Will Min-ter and Trav Humphrey were declared the winners of a fine saddle.

A party of about twenty-five rode out to the Caariz co., where they spent a very pleasant day in the shade of the beautiful grove around and in the vicinity of that justly celebrated water source.

Another party, of equestrians, took lunch and enjoyed the scenery of Carrizo mountain, and report a very enjoyable day.

Again, the loyal people of the Park indulged in a barbecue near the school house, where a dance took place at night, participated in by a number of White Oaks people.

The absence of so many of our residents was apparent in the quiet which reigned in town throughout the day.

The evening, however, was enlivened by a number of displays of fireworks on individual account. Only one drunken person was observed on the streets during the day.

OBSERVED AT RUIDOSO.

The celebration held at the grove near Dowlin's mill was, probably, the most elaborate of any in the county. The exercises consisted in an oration by Prof. John P. Owen, of the Agricultural college, Las Cruces, which is said to have been able and eloquent. The dinner is spoken of as excellent beyond description. There were foot races, a horse race and other amusements of various kind. One of the unique entertainments was a "spoon race," in which young ladies participated for the prize, which was won by Miss Hughes. The contestants were required to carry a spoon with an egg in the bowl, and the one who could first cross under the wire with the egg in the bowl of the spoon was the winner. Another contest—that of the ring tournament—was won by Miss Emma Pfingsten, of Bonto. All who were present pronounce the celebration on the Ruidoso a complete success.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

Rev. S. V. Dilley preached a very able and instructive sermon Sunday evening, while Mrs. Dilley presided at the organ.

A good audience was in attendance, but we failed to recognize many of the enthusiastic reorganizers of the Congregational church who, a year or so since, were so anxious to build up a church here. Is it possible that some of them mistook the effects of the mumps for then on the market for religion and joined the church under the belief that they had it? White Oaks has never been an immoral town, but so-called Christian example here has, sometimes, been such as to cause the better classes of people to turn from it in disgust. It
